DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of the species of Figs. 1-4, readable on claims 1-13, in the reply filed on November 6, 2006, is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

2. Claims 14 and 15 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on November 6, 2006.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on March 7, 2005, was filed and the submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Drawings

4. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: "25a-25d".

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

5. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

6. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

7. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

8. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The exact meaning of the recited phrase "said horizontal guiding cross-bars being guided on vertical beams of the support frame at both ends" (claim 1) is not clearly understood. Figures 1 and 2 clearly show "a horizontal support beam (3), but do not show "vertical beams" as applicant recited. It is unclear that the support frame has vertical beams or not. Moreover, claims 8 and 10-13 recite "a traction means" which refers to "a chain" and it appears that the claimed language is misleading. The definition of "a traction device" is normally used in the lifting art as "a pulley" or "a driving power means".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

9. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

10. Claims 1-13, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Focke et al. (5,338,150).

Focke et al. (5,338,150) discloses a lifting device comprising at least one hydraulic cylinder (56,57) arranged on a support frame (46,65) with a piston and a piston rod (Figs. 2 and 3), at least two horizontal guiding cross-bars spaced apart from each other, wherein lengthwise displacement of said piston rod is transformed into a synchronous upward and downward movement, said horizontal guiding cross-bars connected to a load-receiving device for the container, said horizontal guiding cross-bars (51) (Fig. 6) being guided on vertical beams of the support frame at both ends, for the lifting and lowering of the container, wherein transformation of the lengthwise displacement of said piston rod into the upward and downward movement is accomplished by at least one angle lever pivoted on said support frame, said at least one angle lever comprising two lever arms (53 and 29) (54 and 30), one of said lever arms being connected to said piston rod and the other of said lever arms being connected to one of mid guiding trans-bars.

Re claims 3 and 4, figure 5 shows a connecting member (33,34).

Re claims 8 and 10-13, figures 11 and 12, as best understood, show a lifting means (31,32,33,34), which can be considered as traction means, to suspend a container.
